

Week 15 Lit Example Worksheet

SHAKESPEARE: VERBAL AND REAL DISPUTES

Purpose: Apply Week 15's dispute map to contested words in Macbeth and Julius Caesar.

Directions: Use the Lit Example Reader. Do not retell the plot; classify the kind of dispute and explain what remains after clarification.

Part 1: Macbeth and the Word Man

Question 1.1

What contested term drives the Macbeth passage, and what does Lady Macbeth seem to mean by it?

ANSWER LABEL: Part 1 Q1

Question 1.2

What does Macbeth's reply suggest about his meaning of the same term?

ANSWER LABEL: Part 1 Q2

Part 2: Classifying Macbeth's Dispute

Question 2.1

After the contested term is clarified, what real disagreement remains between Macbeth and Lady Macbeth?

ANSWER LABEL: Part 2 Q1

Question 2.2

Classify the Macbeth dispute as verbal, real, or mixed. Explain your classification.

ANSWER LABEL: Part 2 Q2

Part 3: Caesar and Public Words

Question 3.1

What claim does Brutus make about Caesar, and what contested term must the crowd understand before judging that claim?

ANSWER LABEL: Part 3 Q1

Question 3.2

What examples does Antony offer, and how do they pressure Brutus's use of the contested term?

ANSWER LABEL: Part 3 Q2

Part 4: Dispute Map and Comparison

Question 4.1

Complete a dispute map for the Caesar passage: contested term, Brutus's meaning, Antony's pressure on that meaning, shared claim, remaining disagreement, and classification.

ANSWER LABEL: Part 4 Q1

Question 4.2

Compare the two passages. Why does clarifying a powerful word help without automatically settling the whole conflict?

ANSWER LABEL: Part 4 Q2