Week 19 Lit Example Worksheet

TRAGIC JUDGMENT AND DISCIPLINED THOUGHT

Purpose: Build a miniature portfolio defense from Shakespeare: claim, textual evidence, warrant, qualification, and concrete transfer.

Part 1: Macbeth — Evidence and Revision

Question 1.1

What observation challenges Macbeth's confidence, and how does his first response differ from his later response?

Part 1 Q1

Question 1.2

Make a limited claim about disciplined judgment that this sequence supports. Name the Whately habit and state the warrant linking passage to claim.

Part 2: Macbeth — Qualification and Transfer

Question 2.1

What does the passage not prove about logic or character? Add one qualification that keeps your claim from overreaching.

Question 2.2

Transfer the warning to a concrete nonliterary setting. Name the pressure and the action a disciplined thinker should take.

Part 3: Brutus — Independent Defense

Question 3.1

Make a precise claim about the pressure point in Brutus's reasoning. Use words from the passage as evidence; do not summarize the plot.

Part 3 Q1

Question 3.2

State the warrant connecting your evidence to one disciplined habit, then name a fair counterpressure or alternative the conclusion must answer.

Part 4: Comparative Closing

Question 4.1

Compare the two failures of judgment. What shared habit is missing, and how do the passages show different forms of pressure on that habit?

Part 4 Q1

Question 4.2

Write a closing paragraph for a portfolio defense using one passage. Include a claim, evidence, warrant, qualification, and transfer beyond the logic unit.
