

Student Name:

Student ID:

Assignment ID: U1L16LE Rev: 1 Page 1 of 4

Week 16 Lit Example Worksheet

SHAKESPEARE: RHETORIC AND PROOF

Purpose: Apply Week 16's rhetoric-vs-proof analysis to Antony's funeral speech and Lady Macbeth's persuasion.

Directions: Use the Lit Example Reader. Do not retell the plot; separate audience force from logical proof.

Part 1: Antony — Claim and Force

Question 1.1

What main claim or set of claims does Antony press on the crowd, and what response does he want?

Part 1 Q1

Question 1.2

Identify one ethos move and one pathos move in Antony's speech.

Part 1 Q2

Student Name:

Student ID:

Assignment ID: U1L16LE Rev: 1 Page 2 of 4

Part 2: Antony — Proof Test

Question 2.1

What logos-style evidence does Antony offer against the charge that Caesar was ambitious, and what limited point might that evidence support?

Part 2 Q1

Question 2.2

Does Antony's rhetorical force match, exceed, or replace proof for the stronger conclusions about treason and what Rome should do? Explain.

Part 2 Q2

Student Name:

Student ID:

Assignment ID: U1L16LE Rev: 1 Page 3 of 4

Part 3: Lady Macbeth — Pressure

Question 3.1

What does Lady Macbeth want Macbeth to conclude or do, and which appeals does she use?

Part 3 Q1

Question 3.2

After her speech lands emotionally, what moral or factual burden still remains unproved?

Part 3 Q2

Student Name:

Student ID:

Assignment ID: U1L16LE Rev: 1 Page 4 of 4

Part 4: Compare and Judge

Question 4.1

Complete a brief rhetoric-vs-proof map for one passage: claim, audience, key appeals, proved, only suggested, force vs proof.

Part 4 Q1

Question 4.2

Compare the two passages. Why can a speech be powerful without settling the claim that actually needs proof?

Part 4 Q2