Week 8 Logic Lab

EQUIVOCATION AND THE AMBIGUOUS MIDDLE

Purpose: Apply Week 8 skills to new examples. Do not copy examples from the reading handout.

Part 1: Spot the Shift

Question 1.1

“All bats sleep upside down in caves. The coach ordered new bats. Therefore the coach ordered new animals that sleep upside down in caves.” Identify the shifting term and state both meanings.

Part 1 Q1

Question 1.2

“All fairs are outdoor festivals with vendors. The referee’s call was fair. Therefore the referee’s call was an outdoor festival with vendors.” Identify the shifting term and state both meanings.

Part 4: Argument in a Paragraph

Question 4.1

Read the paragraph. Identify the shifting term, both meanings, and explain why the main conclusion does not follow.

After the assembly, the principal praised the sound system and said the debate club needed a sound argument for the budget. One student answered that their argument was sound because the microphones were sound during the rehearsal. The janitor asked people to recycle cups. The student finished: “If the argument is sound, the board should fund the trip. Our argument is sound. Therefore the board should fund the trip.”

Part 5: Review

Question 5.1

“Anyone who questions the spirit-week schedule is against school pride. You questioned the schedule. Therefore you are against school pride.” Perform a short fallacy autopsy: conclusion, apparent proof, and defect.

Part 5 Q1

Question 5.2

“All songbirds are animals that can fly long distances over open water. All robins are songbirds. Therefore all robins are animals that can fly long distances over open water.” Apply the form test, then name the main fact-test problem.
