

Week 12 Lit Example Worksheet

SHAKESPEARE: EVIDENCE AND CHARACTER CLAIMS

Purpose: Apply Week 12's method to Cassius and Lady Macbeth. Decide how far examples support character claims.

Directions: Use the Lit Example Reader. Do not retell the plot; test the evidence-to-claim match.

Part 1: Cassius's Examples

Question 1.1

What two examples does Cassius use to make Caesar seem less impressive?

ANSWER LABEL: Part 1 Q1

Question 1.2

What limited claim about Caesar do those examples support?

ANSWER LABEL: Part 1 Q2

Part 2: Cassius's Overclaim

Question 2.1

What larger claim about Caesar or Rome might Cassius want Brutus to infer from these examples?

ANSWER LABEL: Part 2 Q1

Question 2.2

Why are Cassius's examples not enough by themselves to prove that larger claim?

ANSWER LABEL: Part 2 Q2

Part 3: Lady Macbeth's Evidence

Question 3.1

What general claim does Lady Macbeth make about Macbeth's ambition and nature?

ANSWER LABEL: Part 3 Q1

Question 3.2

What visible evidence in the passage supports her claim, and what evidence would make the claim stronger?

ANSWER LABEL: Part 3 Q2

Part 4: Revise the Claims

Question 4.1

Revise Cassius's argument so the conclusion fits the examples he gives.

ANSWER LABEL: Part 4 Q1

Question 4.2

In one paragraph, explain how Week 12's evidence ladder helps readers make careful claims about character without ignoring powerful examples.

ANSWER LABEL: Part 4 Q2